Maria Rogers Naito: "Quilting in Today's Japan"

Originally from England I lived over 25 years in Japan. After graduating college, I started to back-pack around the world, several times in fact, at one time for 2 years volunteering aboard a ship making weekly TV documentaries. I've always loved textiles and collected pieces from various places during my travels.

While in Japan in the early 90s, earning money to continue my travels I met my husband. During those years since, while raising my family and living in Japan I went most years to the large Tokyo International Quilt Show, as well as to smaller shows in Yokohama. I visited local flea markets buying Kimonos, Yukatas and indigo fabric scraps, but I really only started quilting in 2013.

My talk and slide show will be a little glimpse on everyday life in Japan, and a lot of wonderful photos of the amazing Japanese quilts from the various quilt shows I have been lucky enough to see.

In my presentation I talk about the history of how Japanese art and culture developed over the last century, and how quilting especially found fame internationally. I explain the system of how quilters may study years under a Sensei. I'll share the types of fabrics Japanese quilters often use, and you will be able to see all these used in my detailed close-up photos.

I hope to be able to answer questions you may have if you are considering visiting this amazing country and the Tokyo International Quilt Festival.

PVQ Board Meeting Minutes for May 10, 2021

Attendees: Diane Thompson, Sheron Mozzone, Kat Stahl, Patti Asamura, Colleen Wise, Darla Running, Kathy Clark, Susan Butenko, Kim Smith, Cora Russell, Janet Casement.

President: Patti Asamura called the meeting to order at 7:10pm.

Kim Smith made motion to accept the April 12, 2021 board meeting minutes as written, and was seconded by Sheron Mozzone. The minutes were accepted as written.

Programs: Colleen Wise has lined up a lot of great speakers. Our June speaker will be Maria Rogers Naito from Japan. Meg Cox was the speaker for the May 5, 2021 general meeting and 31 members attended. Please join us at the zoom meetings. Colleen has also been hosting Zoom Bees. The Zoom Bees are held two times a month. The first one is the Saturday right after the general meeting from 10-4pm. Use the same code as the general zoom meeting. Come and sew and chat with your friends. Colleen said about 12 attended the last Zoom Bee.

Treasurer: Kathy Clark will be putting together a budget for the up coming year. for September 1, 2021-August 31, 2022. Kathy is also putting together a profit, loss and balance sheet. The budget for the 2020-2021 has been spent on programs and the website and Zoom Meetings. We have saved on rent by not meeting at Mountain View Community Center and not meeting at the mall this year, but dues have been cut in half. Programs have cost a little more since we have 12 speakers instead of the usual 9-10. There was discussion of possibly having 2-3 meeting without a speaker. Possibly a Zoom class on how to make "something" and have a member teach, see if quilt stores might have on-line videos, or have tours of members sewing spaces. Board is open to ideas.

Advertising: With sad hearts, Sara DeLaRosa will be leaving us. Sara has been setting up the new website moving things from the Shutterfly site to the new website. Kim Smith will be learning how to put the newsletter and BOM on the website from Sara. With Sara leaving we are looking for someone to help with the website, social media, and advertising. If you are interested in helping or know someone that is knowledgeable in this area please let Patti Asamura. Our website is www.puyallupvalleyquiltguild.com Check it out

Membership: Diane Thompson reported we have 2 new members Ilene Anderson and Margaret "Peggy" Stanhart. This makes our total of 68 members. Membership can be paid through our website with Paypal and membership forms are there to be filled out.

Block of the Month: Susan Butenko said the BOM is "May is for Roses".

Community Service: Darla Running reported she got a quilt back from Ginnie Hebert and pillowcases from Kat Stahl. There was talk about other charities to donate pillowcases too.

Sheron Mozzone suggested Camp Korey in Mount Vernon for handicapped, cancer and terminally ill children.

Pick up and Drop off: Susan Butenko the next meeting will be June 15, 2021 at the Manorwood Clubhouse from 11-1 pm.

Seabeck Fall Retreat: Cora Russell reported that the Spruce is full for fall retreat.

Tamarack bottom floor is full but there are still a couple of rooms upstairs. 31 people have signed up for the Seabeck Fall Retreat. Seabeck has said we will be eating in the dining room but it will be cafeteria style with trays.

The dates are October 13-17th or a shorter stay of October 14-17th. 2022.

New Business: Patti Asamura led the discussion and review of the proposed changes to the by-laws. Kim Smith will type up and send out to the board members for accuracy and will then send out via email to the membership for review. Voting will be at the July 7th General meeting.

With no further business, Diane Thompson made a motion adjourn and Kat Stahl Seconded.

The meeting adjourned at 9:25 pm.

President's Message

Happy spring quilting family!

It is spring in the PNW. Freezing cold in the morning -sunny and 80 during the day and thundershowers in the late afternoon. Very bi-polar. Spring is also a time for babies. Puppies-chicks-lambs and new grandbabies. I love spring. There is so much to do in spring it takes me away from being able to sew anything major until fall. I'm thankful for the few days of rain we will get and hope I can get a few seams sewn. I hope all of you are enjoying the beautiful spring, the longer days and have the opportunity to complete all your projects. See you all in June

Block of the Month

" May is for Roses"

BOM report. I hope lots of people are going on Shutterfly and checking out the blocks. If you have trouble running them off check with me and I will get you copies. Kim Smith will also get you a copy. Are you working on your COVID quilt top? If you send me a picture of a completed top of blocks from April, 2020 to April, 2021, I will send you a $25 gift certificate from either The Quilt Barn or the Quilt Fairy, your choice. These tops can be donated to PVQ or you can keep them to remind you that, in spite of isolation, there is still quilting. The deadline for texting or emailing a picture of your quilt top (does not have to be quilted) is August 1st.

My email is bsbutenko001@q.com
My cell phone for texting is 253-381-3683
I hope to see lots of tops.

Hero Quilts

For those of you who are still not sure what your next project should be, how about a hero lap quilt?

Red, white and blue fabrics, no larger than 60" by 60" please. We are looking to build up an inventory of finished hero quilts with the hope that, if the opportunity arises, we can again donate to an Honor Flight. There is no firm timetable but sometime this summer would be nice. If not before.

Thank you in advance.

Seabeck Retreat-Spring 2021

March 11-14

&

Cascade Retreat

May 6-9, 2021

With a sad heart I need to let all of you know that both retreats have been cancelled and moved to next year (2022). It is still too risky to our health and our families to gather together until the vaccine is distributed to more people and the restrictions are fewer for group get togethers.

Seabeck will move our deposit forward with no penalties and Jodi will let me know the new dates and if there is a change of the cost.

Katie at Cascade is also moving our deposit forward with no penalties. The cost has not been set yet but the date is May 5th -8th 2022.

It is getting harder and harder emotionally to keep moving these dates. Hang in there, stay healthy and keep sewing!!

Seabeck Retreat-Fall 2021

October 13-17

Our usual Fall Seabeck Retreat time has come and gone. And boy, did I miss going!! I'm certain I am not the only one. We creative people are in need of spending time with those that share our interests and inspire us. We are already planning for a fun time for Fall 2021 Seabeck Retreat. And if you are a regular, you won't want to miss out. I know that most of you requested that I keep your deposit (and / or full payment) to put toward the Fall 2021 retreat. Those of you who have not requested a refund currently have a spot reserved for you with the riding deposit (payment). If you did request a refund of your deposit, you will need to send me a $50.00 deposit to reserve your spot again. Please make checks payable to PVQ.

If you have not yet signed up to attend this retreat, but would like to join us, it's not too late. I have three rooms for two or 3 in the Spruce building (rooms that include their private bathroom and shower facilities), and two UP-STAIRS rooms in the Tamarack. They will be on a first come / first serve basis. When they are filled, I will have a waiting list in case there are any cancellations. But remember ladies, we have all been kind of stuck close to home, and there are a lot of us itching to get out of dodge, and spend time with our friends.

If you are interested, please contact me by email and I will gladly fill you in with all the details.

The dates for this retreat are October 13-17, 2021 or you can choose to come October 14-17, at a pro-rated price. For those of you that live on a budget, like myself, I will be happy to take payments if that is easier for you.
