On August 7, 2021 We lost a sweet, sweet member Susie Alegra. She will be dearly missed, she always had a smiling face at the meetings.

September 23rd. Either 11-2 or 2-4pm. Sign up and get a free parking and a fair pass.

Treasurer: Kathy Clark has also taken on advertising for this year. Kathy has sent out 44 letters to potential advertisers. Kathy has heard back from a couple that will be in our newsletter.

Kim with the help of her niece is hoping to learn how to put the newsletter and block of the month information on the new site, and also move past BOM and newsletters from Shutterfly to our new website.

She asked for all articles/items for the newsletter be sent by Sunday, August 15th.

Programs: Colleen Wise has booked speakers for the next few months. September speaker will be Lilo Bowman who wrote the book "Love Your Creative Space". October speaker will be Teresa Duryea Wong talking about dyeing with Indigo. Hopefully we will be able to meet in person at our October meeting at Mountain View Community Center and Zoom too. November Zoom speaker will be Diane Harris from Stash Bandits. December meeting we hope we can have our annual potluck!

Raffle Quilt: Susan Butenko said the raffle quilt is back from the quilter and just needs the label and binding put on.

The name of the raffle quilt is "Vintage Cobblestones" and will be entered in the Washington State Fair.

Custom quilting was donated by member Belinda Mayer, (Clear Creek Cottage Quilting), and the label was donated by member Mary Lou Finch. President Patti Asamura made a motion that we give both women free advertising in newsletter for a year. Sheron Mozzone seconded and was approved.

Community Service: Darla Running said the Red Cross may be donating batting to our guild. They have no where to store it. We are also running out of room in our storage unit. Susan Burenko is going to clean and we are planning on having a guild sale October 8 & 9 2021, 9-4pm. More details coming.

If you are cleaning your sewing rooms and would like to donate for the sale, please bring to the pick up and drop off day September 7th at Manorwood Clubhouse.

Manorwood has a rule of no dogs allowed in the clubhouse. We will need to abide by the rules or risk losing the use of the facility. We are very thankful for a place to meet.

Fall Seabeck Retreat: Cora said every room is filled with the exception of the upstairs in The Tamarack. This is a fun retreat and a good time to get away. October 13-17th or 14-17th.

Spring Seabeck Retreat and Cascade Retreat:

Kat Stahl said that they are still on as planned.

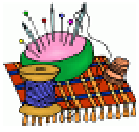

With no further business Patti Asamura made motion to adjourn and Sheron Mozzone seconded and the meeting was adjourned at 8:12 pm.

Puyallup Valley Quilt Guild will be tying quilts again this year at the Washington State Fair

September 20th, 22nd, and 23rd from 11 am - 4 pm.

Come join us for a few hours and enjoy the camaraderie of putting quilt sandwiches together using a very old technique of tying. In the past we have invited fair attendees to join us while they learn the process of tying. The same is true for yourself...it's a lot of fun and relaxing...no real skill is required except to know how to make a knot!!

I still have a couple of openings available if you would like to join us.

See you at the Fair!!!

Block of the Month

“August is Fishing Month”

Directions can be found on our Shutterfly website.

<https://puyallupvalleyquilters.shutterfly.com/#>

I hope everyone is enjoying making blocks. Two people have competed the Covid block-of-the-month challenge. Sheron Mozzone and April Fredericks each received a $25 gift certificate to the Quilt Barn. It's not too late, you too can put 12 blocks of the month together in a top. Email me a picture of the top (does not need to be quilted) and I will make sure you get a gift certificate.

Community Service

Hi Everyone,
July was a good month for Community Service. We got a new donation partner. The Linus Project has reached out to us for donations. They work with at risk children when they need help. We donated 14 lap quilts this month to them. We also donated 5 bed quilts to the Red Cross and 12 pillow cases. During our last pick up, drop off April Fredericks brought in 5 pillow cases and 2 quilt tops and Karen Jones made up 7 pillow cases. Sheron Mozzone turned in 6 pillow cases and 4 finished quilts! Eileen Peacher gave us some fabric, a finished quilt, 2 quilt tops and 6 masks. All in all it was a good month! Thanks to all of you.

Hero Quilts

For those of you who are still not sure what your next project should be, how about a hero lap quilt?

Red, white and blue fabrics, no larger than 60" by 60" please. We are looking to build up an inventory of finished hero quilts with the hope that, if the opportunity arises, we can again donate to an Honor Flight. There is no firm timetable but sometime this summer would be nice. If not before.

Thank you in advance.

2022 Raffle Quilt "Vintage Cobblestones"

It's done! The 2021-2022 raffle quilt is all put together and entered in the Washington State Fair. I want to thank ALL of you for the encouragement and all the lovely blocks.

A special thank you to Susan Treloar who helped me put it together; Kim Smith, Sheron Mozzone, Kathy Clark, April Fredericks, and Darla Running who all gave me opinions on the background. I want to especially acknowledge Belinda Mayer, a long-arm quilter (Clear Creek Cottage Quilting) and one of our members, who donated her talents and quilted the quilt. If you need something special quilted, contact her, she is on the roster. And thank you to member Mary Lou Finch who donated the label. She does beautiful embroidered labels. Please contact her for all your label needs.

The quilt can be seen at the fair and will be on display at our first in-person meeting in October.
