MJ Kinman

When people ask me what I do, I like to tell them
"I make the biggest diamonds in the world...But instead of using the hardest substance on earth,
I use the softest—cloth"

The idea to create giant gem portraits took hold of my soul 20 years ago and has grown into a passion that has enriched my life.

The adventure started years ago when, as a novice
quiltmaker, I discovered an image of a gorgeous gem.
With only a basic understanding of quilting techniques -- and no knowledge whatsoever of gemology -- I was unsure how to transform that image into a pieced work of art. However, I was convinced there had to be a way.
And I was determined to find it. After several years of research and experimentation, I made my first gem portrait.

It's my pleasure to share with you my passion for light and color. <http://www.mjkinman.com/>

President's Message

Hi Everybody,

Autumn is coming. The leaves are turning colors and as the weather gets cooler and rainy, I look forward to quilting season. Yay! I always thought that October retreat was the official start to my quilting season. I will really miss retreat this year.

The board has some good news. We are finally able to accept PayPal. If you would like to use it to pay dues etc you can look for Puyallup Valley Quilters to pay online. Thank you Kathy Clark for setting that up.

Another step towards progress is that we are going to have an actual website. It will be much more user friendly. Sara DeLa-Rosa has agreed to spearhead that and we will work towards having that ready by the end of the year. We will also be tidying up our web presence so that information is correct. We are hoping to entice a younger demographic while making it simpler for our existing membership.

Our Zoom meetings have been doing very well. Almost as many people attend Zoom as did when we met in person. If anyone is not able to do the Zoom meetings and would like to, let us know. We would like to set them up with a guild buddy that can meet with them and they can Zoom together. We don't want anyone to miss out. Thank you Sheron Mozzone for spearheading that.

Little by little we will work on things. If you have any ideas, please reach out to one of the board members. Every cloud has a silver lining. This COVID thing has nudged us to get up to speed with technology which was sorely needed.

I'm excited for the future of the guild. We love our members and want to take care of them while opening our doors to a new generation of quilters.

I can't wait to see you all on October 7th!
Patti Asamura

Community Service

Hi Everyone,

We had a very nice event in the Quilt Barn parking lot in August. Several people brought pillow cases and quilts. Many people took home zipper bag kits to make for Christmas at the Community Center.

Donated items include:

Laura Stevens turned in a completed quilt.

Kelly Haring made a whopping 60 pillow cases.

Kathie Zulaski made 10 pillow cases and took home 100 mask kits.

Kathy Clark donated 2 quilts and 4 pillow cases. Kathy also took home 75 zipper bag kits.

Sheron Mozzone brought in 4 quilts and April Fredericks contributed the fabric for a rag quilt that Sheron finished.

April also brought in 5 pillow cases.

A very successful August for PVQ!

Thank you all very much.

Seabeck Retreat-Fall 2020

October 14-18

With a heavy heart we have made the difficult decision to cancel the October 14-18 Seabeck Retreat. With so many of those regularly expressing concern during this COVID - 19/pandemic, we cannot meet the agreed number of attendees for the retreat. Most if not all of our retreat attendees fall into that 60 & over age group and are considered at risk. And as of this time, Seabeck does not know when the state will allow them to invite groups in to enjoy time there. We thought it best to make a decision sooner rather than later. This is the 2nd retreat I have missed at Seabeck in more than 30 years. And I am at the verge of tears just thinking about missing it and that special time with friends and fellow quilters.

The good news is that Seabeck has reserved our dates for 2021! The dates are October 13-17 for full time attendees, and October 14-17 for part time attendees, and our deposit will be transferred to that time. So if you have made a deposit for this fall's retreat, it will be transferred to the fall 2021 retreat at Seabeck. If you have made a deposit and requested a refund which was sent to you, you will need to resubmit a $50.00 deposit in order for us to reserve a spot for you. I would like to have deposits by October 31, however, I will take them thru the year, until spaces are filled. Those of you who have not paid a deposit will be eligible on a first come first serve basis.

So my fellow retreat quilters, Stay Healthy and Sew On.
