President: Patti Asamura brought the meeting to order at 7:02 pm.

Puyallup Valley Quilt Guild Christmas Party to be held December 8, 2021 from 7-9pm at The Manorwood Clubhouse. Bring yourself, dessert and a homemade ornament (either one you made or made by someone else). The board members finalized all the details for the party.

A discussion is still on the table about possibly finding a new meeting place. Colleen Wise is checking with Celebration Lutheran Church and also checking in on the audio/visual equipment at Mt. View Community Center. If anyone else can think of a place to hold our meetings let Patti Asamura or one of the board members know. We are hoping to get a place closer to Puyallup.

There will be no board meeting in December unless there is an emergency.

Treasurer/Advertising: Kathy Clark said there are two more possible advertisers. She wrapping up paying bills for retreats.

Newsletter: Kim Smith is getting low on US postage stamps. She will need to purchase a roll. She will put together an invite to the December party for everyone to RSVP by November 30th.

Membership: Diane Thompson reported 4 new members. We want to welcome all the new members. Kim Smith and Diane will be working on a new brochure for PVQ, and going over the roster for 2021/2022 to make sure they both have accurate information.

Raffle Quilt: Susan Butenko is having tickets printed and will possibly have them at the December meeting. She will also bring the raffle quilt to show everyone.

Programs: Colleen Wise is looking for speakers for the 2022 year. If you have any suggestions send them her way. Colleen found the owner of all the quilts that had been stored at the Karshner Museum for many years. They all belonged to Eileen Peacher. Eileen was excited for their return.

President's Message

Happy Holiday Season to you all!

It is the start of the holiday season and I hope everyone is excited. A time to spend with family and friends. If you are a quilter/crafter it is the busiest time of year getting all the gifts/projects finished. If you are like me you won't get them all done. I have illusions of what I can accomplish. I am looking forward to getting together on December 8th and seeing a lot of you for our holiday get together. It has been almost 2 years since we have been able to meet in person. If you are a long distance member or don't feel comfortable yet we will be able to Zoom with you and you can still be part of the festivities.

The board is working on securing a place that can accommodate our group and provide the ability to Zoom our speakers. Hopefully in the next few months. The world is a different place and we are committed to keep up with technology kicking and screaming.

I hope to see you all in December until then stay safe and healthy.

Patti

Fall 2021 Seabeck Retreat

A fun time was had by all who attended the Fall Seabeck Retreat in October! We played a new to us game, had a few fun and useful mystery projects...but most importantly, we were able to spend time and visit with our quilting friends. That was so long overdue!

We are already planning for the Fall 2022 Seabeck Retreat. This retreat will be held at the same location, Seabeck Conference Center, in Seabeck, Washington, October 12 (13)-16th, 2022. The cost for this retreat is $382.00 for Wednesday arrival, and $307.00 for Thursday arrival. All meals beginning with lunch on the arrival day thru Sunday lunch are provided. Each room in housing has it's own private restroom, including a shower. All rooms are double occupancy. Next year we are limited to the use of only one building for housing, which is the Spruce. And because we have lost the use of the other housing, we are limited to how many can attend. Currently I have 5 openings remaining for the Fall 2022 retreat.

If you are interested in attend this retreat, please contact me by email:
corarussell@hotmail.com.
